

Second Members' Business meeting, Sat, March 31, 2012, Seattle, WA

Keith Williams, Outgoing NCECA President, called the meeting to order at 9:05 am

Sam Chung, Director at Large, introduced the Emerging Artist Program and explained the enhanced Emerging Artist benefits and activities made possible through the Windgate Charitable Foundation and NCECA matching funds.

Dylan Beck, Nicholas Bivens, and Chandra DeBuse presented their Emerging Artist slide talks.

Patsy Cox, Incoming NCECA president, explained the president elect process in which the candidates will present 3 minute campaign speeches and voting will occur during a break in the Emerging Artist program.

Deborah Bedwell and Paul Andrew Wandless, nominees to NCECA president elect, gave their speeches and paper ballots were collected.

Merrie Wright and Jeff Forster gave a short introduction to Houston as the next conference site for 2013.

Emerging Artist presentations continued with Darien Johnson, Peter Christian Johnson, and Matthew McConnell.

The results of the President elect vote were announced: Deborah Bedwell was selected to fill the office for the next 2 years.

Closing lectures were given by Sandy Simon and Robert Brady.

After a short recess, the business meeting continued with speeches given by Director at Large candidates 2012-2015: Garth Johnson, Stephen Wolochowicz, and Scott Lykens

Student Director at Large candidates (2012-2014) also gave short speeches: Zach Tate and Kevin Ramler.

Results of the elections were: DAL - Garth Johnson; and Student DAL - Kevin Ramler.

Keith Williams gave his farewell address.

Paul Sacaridiz was introduced as On Site Conference Liaison for 2014 in Milwaukee, WI.

Patsy Cox said thanks and farewell to outgoing President Keith Williams, and to members in attendance.

Wendy Love was the winner of the drawing for a conference pass and membership for 2013.

Meeting adjourned at 1:15.